WISE BAPTIST NEWS

A PUBLICATION FOR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF WISE BAPTIST CHURCH

June 14, 2016

A place for faith and fellowship with family and friends.

Dear church family and friends,

News from Orlando continues to pour in after the horrific shooting. Our minds reel and our hearts break. We are speechless in the face of the unspeakable violence. It turns our world upside down. We wonder, what kind of world is this in which we live? Is anyone safe? Will justice be done?

Where does God fit into all of this? What answers do we embrace and then share with the questioning world? As we grope for answers, we want to find an explanation. When life spins out of control, answers help us gain control. Life then seems more predictable (and safer).

It is easy to reach for quick explanations. Let's take a look at them. "God is in control or He has a plan". I agree that God is guiding the universe, but how does this come across to our world in this moment? It sounds like God planned it. Another is "God can use it for His glory". He can, but that is small comfort to the suffering and sounds like their pain is being trivialized.

Evil has been with us from the beginning and will be until we are in heaven. The Bible uses the word "darkness" to convey evil. There is a level of evil that defies human explanation. There is, however, a supernatural explanation. The Bible explains part of this in terms of the Devil.

The natural state of the physical world is darkness, the absence of light. It takes energy to generate light. When there is spiritual darkness, there is chaos and we cannot see where to go or even who we are. John 8:12 says that Jesus is the "Light of the world". Only Jesus can penetrate the darkness that grips our world.

So...what do we say to a wondering world? It might be good to pause and "weep with those who weep". Pray. When we call for justice, remember that God will one day settle it, but it may be on the other side of this life. It is also useful to remember that His only Son suffered grave injustice. Finally, let the love of Jesus shine out from our hearts and lives into the darkness.

Love, Pastor Mike

Oh my goodness—what an incredible day of worship! The choir was awesome and weren't you shocked when you saw Misty pick up that string bass?! I am so thankful to Bruce Cahoon for taking the initiative to put together an ensemble for worship. Bruce has a passion for music and he chooses to use that to serve and worship God.

I would also like to take a moment to thank my friend, Marty Kennedy. You all know that he is an awesome drummer. But, you may not realize what it takes for him to be so good. He has spent years perfecting his craft. Sometimes he has advanced notice of a song; sometimes we work them out on a Sunday morning. But, he takes every worship song to heart. He never fails to find a way to apply the message of the song to his life. Finally, Marty has told me on more than one occasion that playing this music in church has "saved his life". Marty has a wonderful testimony—hopefully one day he will give in to me asking him to share it with all of you! But, until that day, know that Marty brings so much more than "drumming" to our worship. He brings a heart for the Lord. Music is his passion and I am thankful that he is willing to use his passion and his talent for God!

This Sunday is going to be a very special day in the life of our church! We are going to be blessed with some awesome music from Papa Joe and Joe Frank. We will also have music from the Swindalls and Andi Kilgore. Many more of our musicians—Marty, Bruce, Jim, Bonnie and others—will be sharing their talents as well. I hope you will plan to be here—spread the word to others, as well.

Someone said to me on Sunday—"Wise Baptist has the music going on—it is the music place". That is a great compliment to the many women and men who are using their talent and their passion to serve WBC and more importantly, the Kingdom of God. To God Be All Glory! Find your passion and serve!

I am praying for you this week; pray for each other, too.

Blessings, Leigh

Mark and I had the joy of attending a former "flock" member's wedding last Saturday. Olivia Jade Collins (Debbie Caudill's daughter) married Josh Proffitt in a beautiful ceremony in Kentucky. Olivia, know that your church family loves you and is praying for you.
